WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU,

(Bell Telephone 113.) Corner of Prince and Royal Streets. Alexandria, Va., Jan. 9.—Several suits at law and equity will engage the attention of the United States Court for the Eastern | Ohio. district of Virginia for the remainder of this week, and will probably prolong the term of the court to next Monday or been seventy-four years old. Tuesday. Judge Waddill is presiding. The first of these cases, which will be taken up to-morrow morning, is that of Joseph A Thompson against the National Bank of Fairfax for damages in the sum of $5,000. This action is based on the alleged refusal of the bank to honor a check drawn by the plaintiff.

The grand jury to-day returned indict ments against the following: Augustus M. Moring, of Warwick County, charged special tax required; W. G. Bohr, of died at 10 o'clock of his injuries. Stafford County, charged with conducting the business of a retail liquor dealer without the payment of the special tax, and J. O. Patterson, charged with engaging in ing the special tax. The grand jury was him then discharged for the term.
